What

Join the Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education for the August 15 Critical Issues Forum, “Elections 2018,” to hear from Georgia’s State School Superintendent Candidates, Otha Thornton (D) and Richard Woods (R). Alan Richard, national education writer, will share what recent poll results are telling us about public perceptions of education. Using these findings, a diverse panel of interviewers will probe the candidates for their stance on the issues most important to voters and their top priorities to position Georgia as one of the best states in the nation for education. Panelists will include:

Duke Bradley, 2018 Fulton County Schools Principal of the Year, Banneker High School
Genesis Castro, Recent Graduate, Peachtree Ridge High School and University of Georgia
Chris Clark, President & CEO, Georgia Chamber of Commerce
Allison Kerley Townsend, 2019 Georgia Teacher of the Year

Location

Loudermilk Conference Center, 40 Courtland St NE, Atlanta, GA 30303
